

AX-4410. AX4410.

Same part. Zero results.

A missing dash just cost you a buyer.

1

She types ball valve.

Your catalog says BV-050-BR. Add the words buyers type, plus old part numbers.

2

Specs trapped in a PDF.

A buyer on a phone will not pinch a 14-page datasheet.
Move top specs into fields.

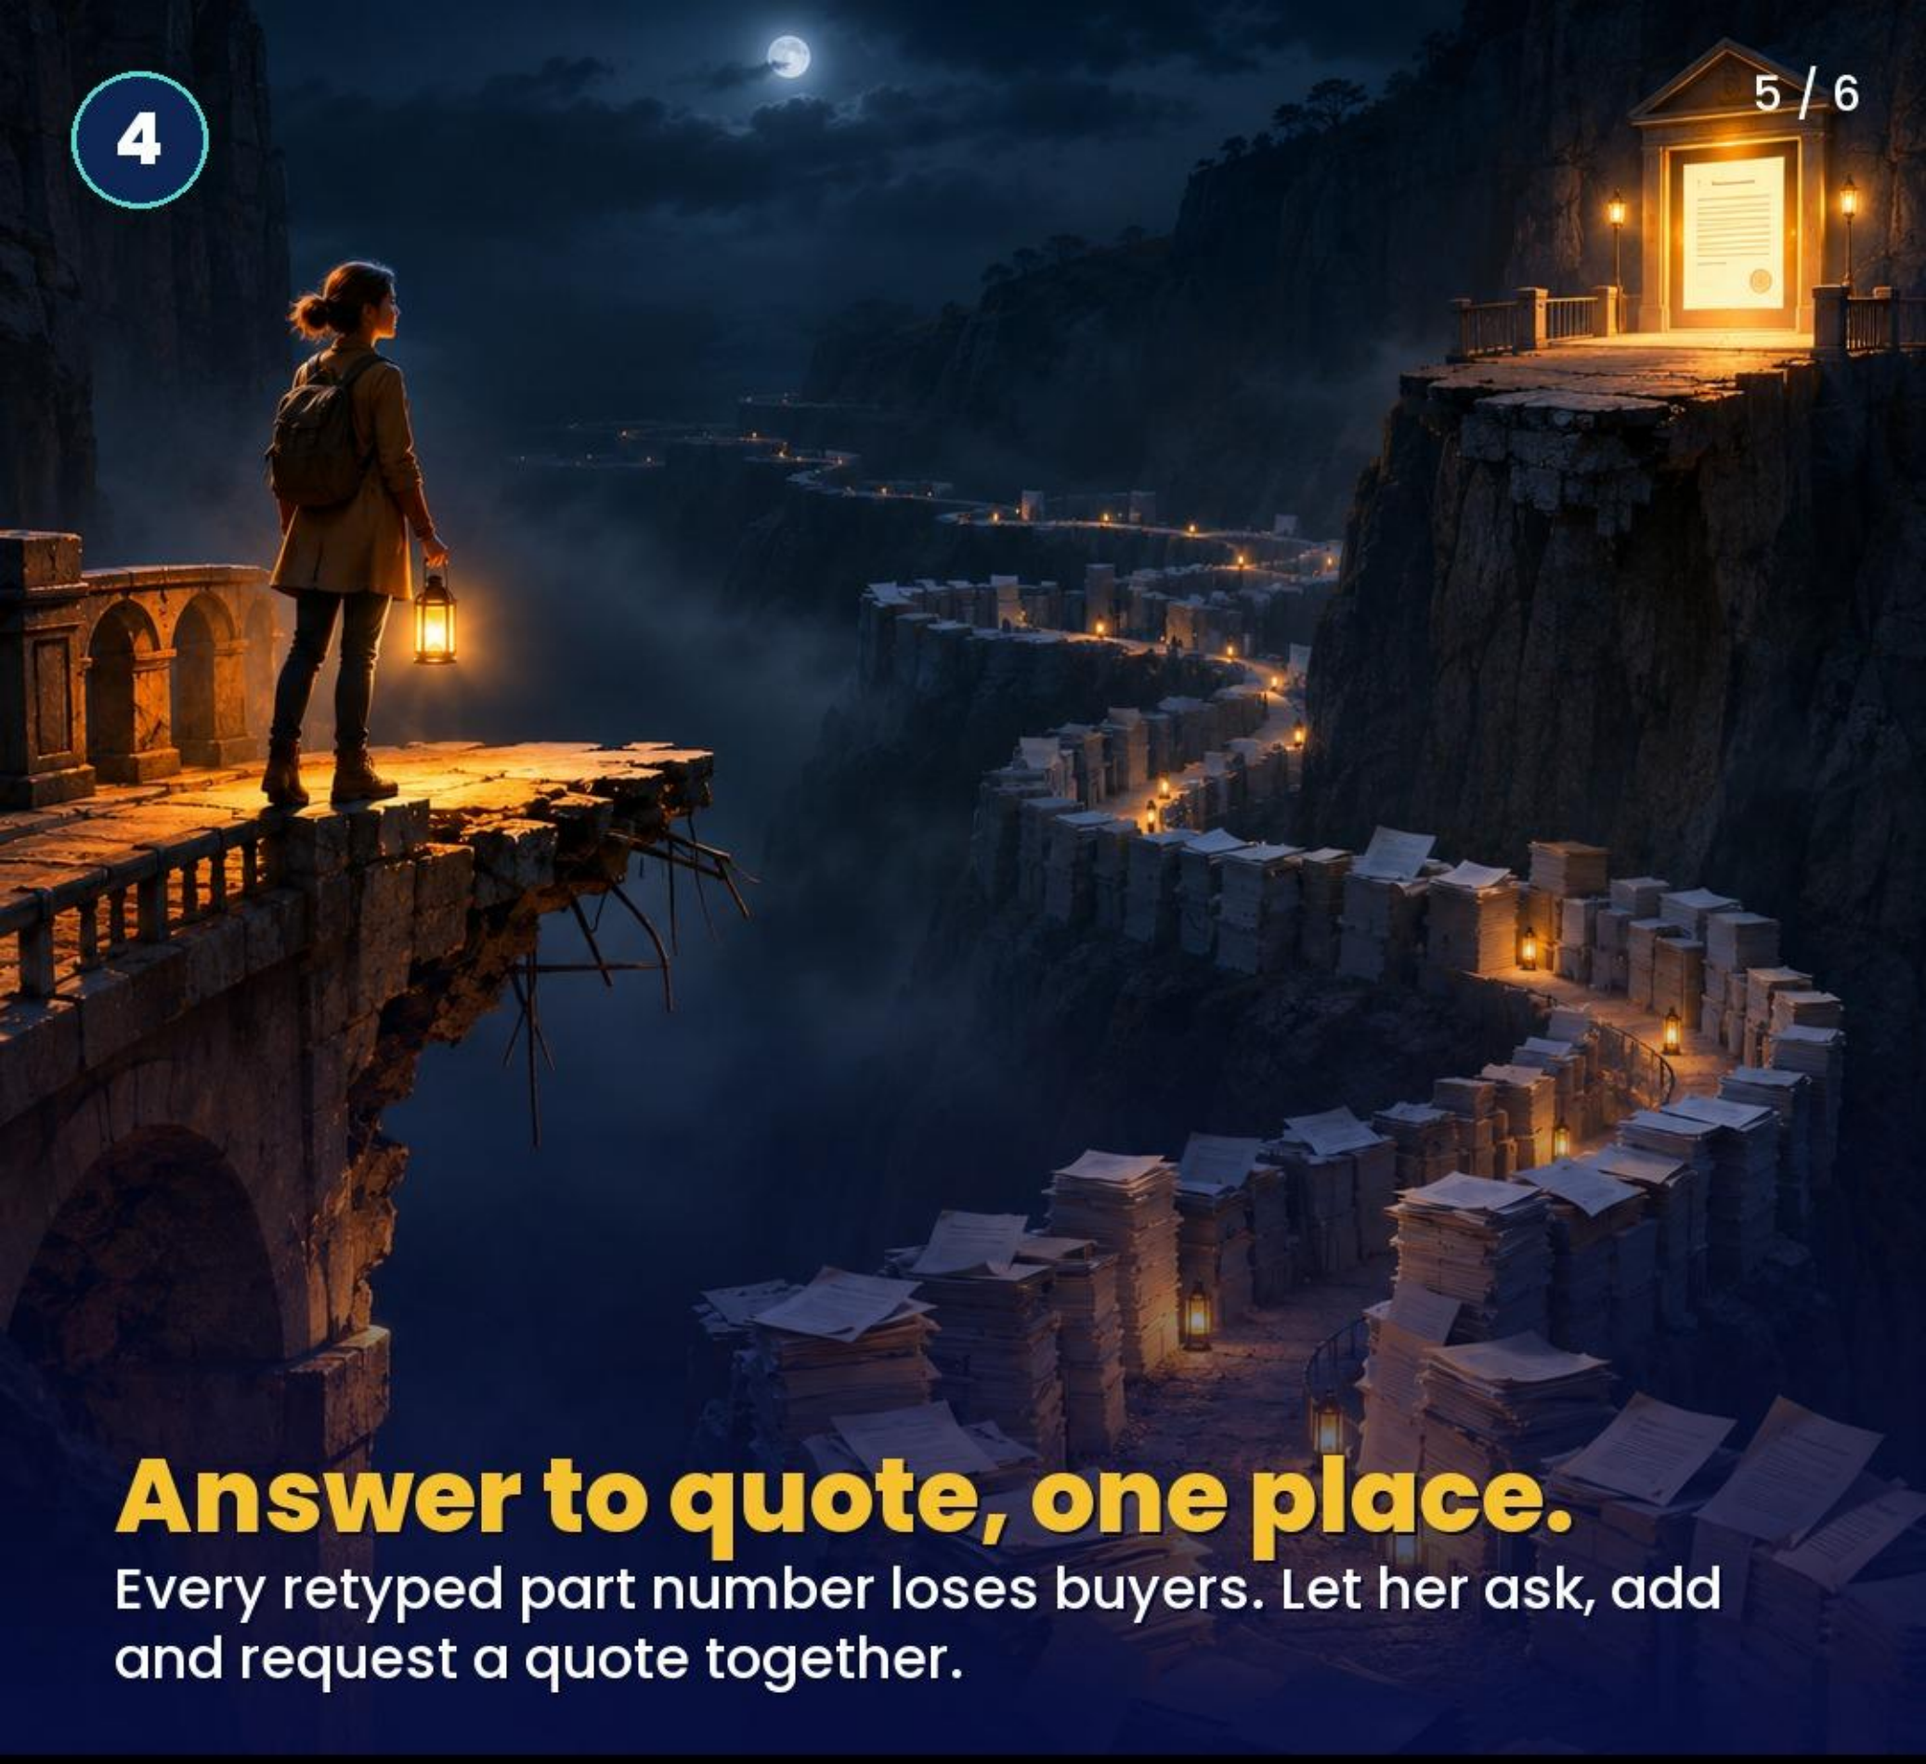

3

A fast wrong answer hurts.

Site says in stock. Warehouse says no. Trust drops. Match prices and stock to your ERP.

4

Answer to quote, one place.

Every retyped part number loses buyers. Let her ask, add and request a quote together.

5

Fix the catalog. Then the chat.
